

RESPIRATORY MEDICINE 2 WEEKS CLINICAL POSTING SCHEDULE IN, JMC w.e.f. 12.03.2021.

(Monday – Friday: 5 days per week)

Date	9am-12 noon
Day 1	Session topic: History taking in respiratory medicine. TLM: Bedside clinics.
Day 2	Session topic: History taking in respiratory medicine. TLM: Bedside clinics.
Day 3	Session topic: History taking in a TB patient. Competency: CT 1.5 – Elicit, document and present an appropriate medical history that included risk factor, contacts, cough, fever, CNS and other manifestations. TLM: Bedside clinics (DOAP session).
Day 4	Session topic: General examination and systemic examination pertaining to respiratory system.
Day 5	Session topic: General examination and systemic examination pertaining to respiratory system.
Day 6	Session topic: Respiratory examination in a TB patient. Competency: CT 1.6- Demonstrate and perform a systematic examination that includes (a) general examination (b) examination of the chest and lung including loss of volume, mediastinal shift, percussion, auscultation(including DOAP sessions of lung sounds and added sounds. TLM: Bedside clinics (DOAP session).
Day 7	Session topic: Communication skill in patient of bronchial asthma. Competency: CT 2.21- Describe, discuss and counsel patient appropriately on smoking cessation. TLM: DOAP session(real patient/simulated patient)
Day 8	Session topic: Pulmonary function tests Competency: CT 2.12- Perform and interpret peak expiratory flow rate. TLM: Bedside/DOAP session. Assessment and documentation in log book (Certifiable skill)
Day 9	Session topic: Pulmonary function tests Competency: CT 2.12- Perform and interpret peak expiratory flow rate. TLM: Bedside/DOAP session. Assessment and documentation in log book for 3 successful attempts (Certifiable skill)

Day 10	END OF POSTING ASSESSMENT <ul style="list-style-type: none">• History taking• General examination• Systemic examination- respiratory system• Communication skill.• PEFR
--------	--